

Austria's Violence Protection Act and Intervention Centres (Gewaltschutzgesetz 1997/2019)

Gender Equality · Good practice · Austria

Puntuación de calidad: 100/100

Solidez de la evidencia: Observational / pre–post

Resumen

Austria's Violence Protection Act (1997, rev. 2019) requires immediate police barring orders and pro-active referral to state-funded Intervention Centres. 14,600+ annual orders; 25,000+ victims reached; replicated in 17+ European countries.

Dimensiones clave

Dimensión	Puntuación
Transferability / replicability	3/3
Impact on gender equality	1/1
Effectiveness	1/1
Efficiency	1/1
Evaluated outcomes	1/1
Sustainability	1/1
Achievement / evidence	1/1
Gender-mainstreaming embedding	1/1
Curator validation	1/1

Evaluable por C-NAPSE

Fuentes de datos

C-NAPSE web research — consultado el 2026-06-20

Federal Ministry for Women and Equality (BMFGJ) / Federal Association of Violence Protection Centres Austria — consultado el 2026-06-20

Federal Ministry for Women — Domestic Violence (bmfwf.gv.at) — consultado el 2026-06-20

GREVIO 2024 Thematic Report on Austria (full PDF, Council of Europe) — consultado el 2026-06-20

Federal Association of Violence Protection Centres — Statement (Council of Europe rm.coe.int) — consultado el 2026-06-20

Citar — Evidoria. Austria's Violence Protection Act and Intervention Centres (Gewaltschutzgesetz 1997/2019). ID persistente: 21e107f0-1c05-4a4f-b7c0-62367981edf3.