

Accessible Canada Act — Federal Accessibility Commissioner's Inspections of Plans, Feedback Channels and Progress Reports

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Canada

Quality score: 92/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Canada's Accessible Canada Act (2019) aims for a barrier-free Canada by 2040. Its Commissioner reports 250+ inspections in 2025–26, 95+ non-compliant findings, one complaint and no penalties; ICT rules follow from 2027.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	3/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	1/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-10-17

Office of the Accessibility Commissioner \(Canadian Human Rights Commission\) — accessed 2026-10-17

Accessibility Commissioner 2025–26 annual report — accessed 2026-10-17

Accessibility Commissioner 2024–25 annual report — accessed 2026-10-17

Accessible Canada Act \(S.C. 2019, c. 10\) — accessed 2026-10-17

SOR/2025-255, Canada Gazette Part II — accessed 2026-10-17

Cite this — Evidoria. Accessible Canada Act — Federal Accessibility Commissioner's Inspections of Plans, Feedback Channels and Progress Reports. Persistent ID: 036812a2-f38e-4909-99d8-ff121608e06c.