

Akelius Digital Language Course in Bosnia and Herzegovina — Blended English/German Learning for Refugee and Migrant Children

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Bosnia and Herzegovina

Quality score: 72/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Since July 2020 UNICEF has run Akelius' digital language course in BiH reception centres, later extended to schools in Una-Sana Canton. UNICEF Innocenti's reports find blended use supports personalised learning, but publish no test-score outcomes.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	3/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	1/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-10-11

UNICEF Bosnia and Herzegovina with Akelius — accessed 2026-10-11

UNICEF Innocenti: Unlocking Learning in Bosnia and Herzegovina — accessed 2026-10-11

Friends of Europe: Education opportunities should be accessible to all refugee and migrant children — accessed 2026-10-11

Cite this — Evidoria. Akelius Digital Language Course in Bosnia and Herzegovina — Blended English/German Learning for Refugee and Migrant Children. Persistent ID: 1c31dafd-a7e1-41ee-9066-e5c05e4f6f99.