

Austria's National AI-in-Schools Framework and Curriculum Reform

AI in Education · Good practice · Austria

Quality score: 47/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Austria's Ministry of Education is building a national AI-in-schools framework: exam transparency rules, MOOC teacher training, and a compulsory AI subject from 2027/28 — backed by a 10,000+ respondent survey, though the minister admits outcomes are still 'in the fog'.
