

Bermuda National Disability Register App — UNDP-Backed Voluntary Registry With Text-to-Speech Access

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Bermuda

Quality score: 8/100

Evidence strength: Cautionary / limited

Summary

Launched 24 April 2024, Bermuda's voluntary National Disability Register app (adapted from a Bahamas tool, UNDP-funded) centralises disability data to target services; it has a text-to-speech feature. No uptake or outcome data published yet.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	2/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	0/1
Evaluation evidence	0/1
Demonstrated reach	0/1
Documented learning	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-10-03

Ministry of Youth, Social Development and Seniors \(Ageing & Disability Services\), Government of Bermuda; UNDP — accessed 2026-10-03

Government of Bermuda – National Disability Register launch — accessed 2026-10-03

The Royal Gazette – first national disability registry — accessed 2026-10-03

UNDP – Bermuda goes digital — accessed 2026-10-03

Cite this — Evidoria. Bermuda National Disability Register App — UNDP-Backed Voluntary Registry With Text-to-Speech Access. Persistent ID: f7d3a62d-5550-4aa9-8f40-a15ef235ff4e.