

Centros de Emergencia Mujer — Peru's National One-Stop Network for Gender-Based Violence Survivors

Gender Equality · Good practice · Peru

Quality score: 74/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Peru's Ministry of Women runs 433 free, interdisciplinary Centros de Emergencia Mujer nationwide; a peer-reviewed study links their rollout to a 7% drop in violence-related female deaths and a 10% drop in mental-health hospitalisations.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Transferability / replicability	2/3
Impact on gender equality	1/1
Effectiveness	1/1
Efficiency	0/1
Evaluated outcomes	1/1
Sustainability	1/1
Achievement / evidence	1/1
Gender-mainstreaming embedding	1/1
Curator validation	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-06

Ministerio de la Mujer y Poblaciones Vulnerables \(MIMP\) — accessed 2026-09-06

MIMP — Centros Emergencia Mujer — accessed 2026-09-06

Peer-reviewed impact study \(PubMed\) — accessed 2026-09-06

MEF 2022 process evaluation \(PDF\) — accessed 2026-09-06

Cite this — Evidoria. Centros de Emergencia Mujer — Peru's National One-Stop Network for Gender-Based Violence Survivors. Persistent ID: 8667e32e-002f-4c9b-943b-ceac981aa6bb.