

CNE Gender Parity & Alternation Regulation for Candidate Lists

Gender Equality · Good practice · Venezuela

Quality score: 48/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Venezuela's CNE has issued last-minute gender-parity rules since 2020, but compliance is weak: just 3 of 26 parties met the 2020 rules, women won only 33.57% of Assembly seats, and by 2025 no parity rules were even published.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Transferability / replicability	1/3
Impact on gender equality	0/1
Effectiveness	0/1
Efficiency	0/1
Evaluated outcomes	1/1
Sustainability	1/1
Achievement / evidence	0/1
Gender-mainstreaming embedding	1/1
Curator validation	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-07-11

Consejo Nacional Electoral \(CNE\) — accessed 2026-07-11

CEPAZ: La paridad de género en Venezuela es una deuda histórica — accessed 2026-07-11

Efecto Cocuyo: Reformas electorales que buscan colarse en leyes de la AN de 2020 — accessed 2026-07-11

Transparencia Venezuela: La paridad de género se queda en el papel — accessed 2026-07-11

Cite this — Evidoria. CNE Gender Parity & Alternation Regulation for Candidate Lists. Persistent ID: 0e304f44-1212-44fb-8f7f-dbb57c928686.