Connected Lithuania — Library-Based Digital Skills Training Reaching 104,000+ Adults

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Lithuania

Quality score: 68/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Lithuania's Connected Lithuania project trained 104,000+ adults through libraries and 691 communities in 2018–21; 42% of 2019 learners were 50+. Outcomes are self-reported by the implementer's survey.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	2/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	0/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-10-25

Langas ■ ateit■ (Window to the Future Association) — accessed 2026-10-25

Connected Lithuania close-out (Digital Coalition) — accessed 2026-10-25

Libraries and Lithuania's digital divide (Emerging Europe) — accessed 2026-10-25

Window to the Future (ALL DIGITAL) — accessed 2026-10-25

Cite this — Evidoria. Connected Lithuania — Library-Based Digital Skills Training Reaching 104,000+ Adults. Persistent ID: ccb3e82a-46b5-4f00-b6e9-c69946a5b28b.