CRPD Malta's Easy-Read Programme — From the National Disability Strategy in Easy Read to the Erasmus+ E.A.S.E. Guidelines Built on Surveys of People With Intellectual Disabilities

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Malta

Quality score: 68/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Malta's disability commission writes easy-read versions of national strategies and laws, including the 2026 UNCRPD Amendment Act. It co-led Erasmus+ E.A.S.E. guidelines based on 2024 surveys in Malta and Greece. Reach and comprehension are unmeasured.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	2/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	1/1
Demonstrated reach	0/1
Documented learning	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-11-21

Commission for the Rights of Persons with Disability (CRPD Malta) — accessed 2026-11-21

AccessibleEU: E.A.S.E. Easy Language Guidelines for documents (2025) — accessed 2026-11-21

Callus & Cauchi (2020), Ensuring meaningful access to easy-to-read information, BJLD — accessed 2026-11-21

Malta Independent: EU project expands Easy Read training (Feb 2025) — accessed 2026-11-21

Easy Language version of the UNCRPD Amendment Act 2026 (EN) — accessed 2026-11-21

National Strategy on the Rights of Disabled Persons 2021–2030, Easy Read (EN) — accessed 2026-11-21

Cite this — Evidoria. CRPD Malta's Easy-Read Programme — From the National Disability Strategy in Easy Read to the Erasmus+ E.A.S.E. Guidelines Built on Surveys of People With Intellectual Disabilities. Persistent ID: 329b7450-c489-46de-8c57-1c4744600f31.