

DICE — Digital Inclusion through CSO Empowerment (Mongolia)

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Mongolia

Quality score: 72/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

An EU-funded programme trained 65 Mongolian civil-society organisations to deliver digital skills to marginalised groups (2023-2026), reaching 1,830 people and scoring 4.12/5 in an independent evaluation.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	3/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	0/1
Evaluation evidence	1/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-02

People in Need Mongolia & FARO Foundation — accessed 2026-09-02

People in Need: "No one left behind" evaluation feature — accessed 2026-09-02

PIN Mongolia: DICE launch press release — accessed 2026-09-02

Montsame News Agency: independent coverage — accessed 2026-09-02

Cite this — Evidoria. DICE — Digital Inclusion through CSO Empowerment (Mongolia). Persistent ID: 7a6e27f8-f819-4692-aef8-742f364fccc2.