

Digital Inclusion Scheme — Tablet Loans & Skills Support for Mental Health Service Users (Camden & Islington NHS)

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · United Kingdom

Quality score: 92/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Camden and Islington NHS Foundation Trust's Digital Inclusion Scheme lends tablets, connectivity and AbilityNet-backed digital coaching to mental health service users in London; a peer-reviewed evaluation found 83% of interviewees reported improved wellbeing.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	3/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	1/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-07-22

Camden and Islington NHS Foundation Trust — accessed 2026-07-22

JMIR Mental Health — Service User Interview Study — accessed 2026-07-22

AbilityNet — Camden and Islington partnership — accessed 2026-07-22

Cite this — Evidoria. Digital Inclusion Scheme — Tablet Loans & Skills Support for Mental Health Service Users (Camden & Islington NHS). Persistent ID: 3f8a37e9-bf8c-48d3-aab5-302ccb527cbc.