

Digital Literacy Programme for Kenya's Correctional Institutions

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Kenya

Quality score: 48/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

In early 2026, Kenya's State Department for Correctional Services, Close the Gap and Tech Kids Africa installed 250 refurbished computers across 14 correctional institutions, running a three-month digital-literacy curriculum aimed mainly at young and women offenders.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	2/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	0/1
Evaluation evidence	1/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-07-22

State Department for Correctional Services \(Kenya\), with Close the Gap Kenya and Tech Kids Africa — accessed 2026-07-22

State Department for Correctional Services \(Kenya\) — official announcement — accessed 2026-07-22

Capital FM Africa — Govt boosts prison reforms with digital learning push for inmates — accessed 2026-07-22

Cite this — Evidoria. Digital Literacy Programme for Kenya's Correctional Institutions. Persistent ID: 12bdd7ac-4c7d-4ea0-aa1a-fbde9fe99086.