

Digitally Connected and Resilient Samoa Project

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Samoa

Quality score: 52/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

A US$20.05 million World Bank grant is funding climate-resilient fibre expansion across Upolu and Savai'i, stronger government digital services and a national cyber-emergency response team, targeting an estimated 215,000 Samoans — nearly the country's entire population.
