

disABILITY — MJF Foundation and MillenniumIT ESP's Teletherapy Screening App for Children with Cerebral Palsy

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Sri Lanka

Quality score: 52/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Sri Lanka's MJF Foundation and MillenniumIT ESP launched "disABILITY", a Sinhala/Tamil/English screening and teletherapy app for children with cerebral palsy in 2020; centres reached ~400 children a day, and it was a 2021 Microsoft award finalist.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	3/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	0/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-26

MJF Charitable Foundation; MillenniumIT ESP; Microsoft; Sarva; World Vision Lanka — accessed 2026-09-26

Sunday Times feature — accessed 2026-09-26

MJF Foundation project page — accessed 2026-09-26

Microsoft Inclusion Changemaker finalist coverage — accessed 2026-09-26

Cite this — Evidoria. disABILITY — MJF Foundation and MillenniumIT ESP's Teletherapy Screening App for Children with Cerebral Palsy. Persistent ID: 1cf8ec73-f58a-4e45-81c8-bd1594ba9e61.