Driving Digital Inclusion — 12 UK Children's Charities Combine Devices, Data and Digital Services for Disabled Families, With a Candid Interim Evaluation

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · United Kingdom

Quality score: 92/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Two-year programme of 12 UK charities (Lottery £1.5m, Children in Need £400k) giving disabled and seriously ill children's families devices, data and online services. Year one reached 9,486 people directly but just 356 of 2,000 devices and 7 data packages.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	3/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	1/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-11-25

Kids / Digital Services Consortium (co-chaired with Sense) — accessed 2026-11-25

Kids — Driving Digital Inclusion Programme interim evaluation report (2026) — accessed 2026-11-25

AbilityNet — Disabled children to get digital boost from innovative charity partnerships (May 2025) — accessed 2026-11-25

Family Fund — Thousands of disabled children to benefit from digital inclusion programme — accessed 2026-11-25

Cite this — Evidoria. Driving Digital Inclusion — 12 UK Children's Charities Combine Devices, Data and Digital Services for Disabled Families, With a Candid Interim Evaluation. Persistent ID: 75723109-42f9-40bb-a738-b915e5808c98.