

Fiji Sign Language Self-Learning Video Tool

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Fiji

Quality score: 28/100

Evidence strength: Cautionary / limited

Summary

In December 2019 Fiji launched its first uniform, self-learning Fiji Sign Language video dictionary, built with the Fiji Association of the Deaf and a USP engineering student, so anyone can learn standardised signs for free via TV or computer.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	2/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	0/1
Demonstrated reach	0/1
Documented learning	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-25

Fiji Association of the Deaf; University of the South Pacific; Fiji Ministry of Industry, Trade and Tourism — accessed 2026-09-25

Fijivillage — tool launch — accessed 2026-09-25

Fiji Times — Self-learning video tool — accessed 2026-09-25

Cite this — Evidoria. Fiji Sign Language Self-Learning Video Tool. Persistent ID: c8dafc6f-dc40-4a8f-9081-b0119ac2dcfb.