

Gender Aware Beneficiary Assessment of St. Vincent and the Grenadines' Public Assistance Programme

Gender Equality · Good practice · Saint Vincent and the Grenadines

Quality score: 56/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

UN Women's Gender Aware Beneficiary Assessment (GABA), applied to St. Vincent and the Grenadines' Public Assistance Programme under the Canada-funded Build Back Equal Project, found a gender-blind, paper-based safety net and issued 10 concrete reform recommendations.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Transferability / replicability	3/3
Impact on gender equality	0/1
Effectiveness	0/1
Efficiency	0/1
Evaluated outcomes	1/1
Sustainability	0/1
Achievement / evidence	1/1
Gender-mainstreaming embedding	1/1
Curator validation	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-07-17

UN Women Multi-Country Office – Caribbean — accessed 2026-07-17

UN Women Caribbean — GABA of the Public Assistance Programme in SVG — accessed 2026-07-17

United Nations Eastern Caribbean — GABA of Public Assistance Programmes in Four Eastern Caribbean Countries — accessed 2026-07-17

UN Women Caribbean — SVG National Taskforce on GBV Launched \(Build Back Equal Project\) — accessed 2026-07-17

Cite this — Evidoria. Gender Aware Beneficiary Assessment of St. Vincent and the Grenadines' Public Assistance Programme. Persistent ID: 486e1849-4482-49a3-91f6-c51b5fa39c1f.