

Grace App — Picture-Based Communication for Autism

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Ireland

Quality score: 72/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Picture-exchange communication app for non-verbal children with autism, created by Irish parent Lisa Domican after her daughter Grace used a paper picture book to communicate. Won the UN World Summit Award for Mobile in 2010; over 30,000 downloads across three versions in seven I

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	3/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	0/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-28

Grace App for Autism — accessed 2026-09-28

Grace App official site — accessed 2026-09-28

Irish Times: Global award for Grace App — accessed 2026-09-28

World Summit Award winner profile — accessed 2026-09-28

Cite this — Evidoria. Grace App — Picture-Based Communication for Autism. Persistent ID: 72695d82-f444-45c9-a1bc-b3a6349083c1.