

Indonesia's Anggaran Responsif Gender — Gender-Responsive Budget Statements Across Ministries

Gender Equality · Good practice · Indonesia

Quality score: 63/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Indonesia's Anggaran Responsif Gender tags gender-related budget lines across ministries since 2000, but a World Bank assessment found funding collapsed 48% in 2016 when an enforcement mechanism was removed, and sex-disaggregated data covers under 4% of programmes.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Transferability / replicability	2/3
Impact on gender equality	0/1
Effectiveness	0/1
Efficiency	0/1
Evaluated outcomes	1/1
Sustainability	1/1
Achievement / evidence	1/1
Gender-mainstreaming embedding	1/1
Curator validation	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-07

Ministry of Finance / Bappenas / Ministry of Women's Empowerment and Child Protection — accessed 2026-09-07

Kementerian Keuangan — Implementasi PUG presentation — accessed 2026-09-07

PMK No. 119/PMK.02/2009 \(JDIH Kemenkeu\) — accessed 2026-09-07

PATTIRO — Anggaran Responsif Gender — accessed 2026-09-07

SKALA — Gender-responsive budgeting subnational rollout — accessed 2026-09-07

Cite this — Evidoria. Indonesia's Anggaran Responsif Gender — Gender-Responsive Budget Statements Across Ministries. Persistent ID: 6b3e4814-dbe1-49f1-9b96-b7603c6ffe79.