

ISOC Bosnia and Herzegovina's Barrier-Free Internet Programme for Blind Users

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Bosnia and Herzegovina

Quality score: 88/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Since 2021 the Internet Society Bosnia and Herzegovina Chapter has run Beyond the Net-funded projects training blind and visually impaired residents in internet use, giving at least twenty participants laptops and screen-reader instruction across multiple cycles through 2026.

Key dimensions

| Dimension                | Score |
|--------------------------|-------|
| Innovation level         | 2/5   |
| Sustainability (ongoing) | 1/1   |
| Evaluation evidence      | 1/1   |
| Demonstrated reach       | 1/1   |
| Documented learning      | 1/1   |

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-24

Internet Society Bosnia and Herzegovina Chapter — accessed 2026-09-24

Internet Society Bosnia and Herzegovina — chapter project archive — accessed 2026-09-24

Internet Society \(global\) — Global Accessibility Awareness Day blog — accessed 2026-09-24

---

Cite this — Evidoria. ISOC Bosnia and Herzegovina's Barrier-Free Internet Programme for Blind Users. Persistent ID: 1d845622-ba57-4f11-b9c1-20267bef704a.