LDV (Liberiamoci dalla Violenza) Modena — Italy's First Public Centre for Men Who Use Violence, with Partner-Interview Outcome Data

Gender Equality · Good practice · Italy

Quality score: 63/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Opened December 2011 in Modena's public family clinic, LDV was Italy's first public centre treating men who use violence. By June 2014, 87 of 129 enquirers were assessed and 24 completers reported outcomes; 20 (83%) had stopped all violence. Evidence is uncontrolled.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Transferability / replicability	2/3
Impact on gender equality	1/1
Effectiveness	0/1
Efficiency	0/1
Evaluated outcomes	1/1
Sustainability	1/1
Achievement / evidence	1/1
Gender-mainstreaming embedding	0/1
Curator validation	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-10-30

AUSL Modena – Consultorio Familiare (LDV centre) — accessed 2026-10-30

Il Centro LDV di Modena: primi esiti di una scommessa (2014) — accessed 2026-10-30

Emilia-Romagna: Uomini che cambiano — accessed 2026-10-30

Cite this — Evidoria. LDV (Liberiamoci dalla Violenza) Modena — Italy's First Public Centre for Men Who Use Violence, with Partner-Interview Outcome Data. Persistent ID: c03cc704-be4e-4ee4-9f47-cbae4c145a38.