

Model Programme for Perpetrators of Domestic Violence — Ukraine's Court-Referred, Municipally Delivered Scheme (Order No. 1434, 2018)

Gender Equality · Good practice · Ukraine

Quality score: 15/100

Evidence strength: Cautionary / limited

Summary

Ukraine's Ministry of Social Policy approved a model perpetrator programme in 2018; courts can refer perpetrators for 3–12 months, delivered by local authorities. Coverage is thin and outcomes unevaluated.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Transferability / replicability	1/3
Impact on gender equality	0/1
Effectiveness	0/1
Efficiency	0/1
Evaluated outcomes	0/1
Sustainability	1/1
Achievement / evidence	0/1
Gender-mainstreaming embedding	0/1
Curator validation	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-30

Ministry of Social Policy of Ukraine — accessed 2026-09-30

UN Women/UNFPA — Regional guidance on working with perpetrators of domestic violence \(2022\) — accessed 2026-09-30

UNFPA Ukraine — Review of the national perpetrators' response mechanism — accessed 2026-09-30

Council of Europe — Law of Ukraine on Preventing and Combating Domestic Violence — accessed 2026-09-30

Cite this — Evidoria. Model Programme for Perpetrators of Domestic Violence — Ukraine's Court-Referred, Municipally Delivered Scheme (Order No. 1434, 2018). Persistent ID: 95a60328-10bf-4b0f-b6d8-21490c60a7fc.