

NEUSTART Gewaltpräventionsberatung — Austria's Mandatory Perpetrator Counselling After Protective Eviction Orders

Gender Equality · Good practice · Austria

Quality score: 41/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Since September 2022, Austrian law requires anyone evicted from home under a police protective order to complete at least six hours of violence-prevention counselling with NEUSTART, the national probation service, reaching about 400 people a year in deeper training.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Transferability / replicability	2/3
Impact on gender equality	0/1
Effectiveness	0/1
Efficiency	0/1
Evaluated outcomes	0/1
Sustainability	1/1
Achievement / evidence	1/1
Gender-mainstreaming embedding	1/1
Curator validation	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-03

NEUSTART \(Verein NEUSTART\) — accessed 2026-09-03

NEUSTART – Gewaltprävention — accessed 2026-09-03

Gewaltinfo.at – Gewaltpräventionsberatung — accessed 2026-09-03

APA-OTS – Neue Maßnahme gegen häusliche Gewalt — accessed 2026-09-03

Cite this — Evidoria. NEUSTART Gewaltpräventionsberatung — Austria's Mandatory Perpetrator Counselling After Protective Eviction Orders. Persistent ID: e1f070fb-e88d-4bff-9e92-ca205ce322b5.