

One Million Arab Coders Initiative

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · United Arab Emirates

Quality score: 52/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Dubai-led pan-Arab initiative delivering free online coding courses via Udacity to Arab youth across 80 countries; reported 1 million participants, 5 million study hours and 100,000 graduation projects between 2017 and 2022.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	3/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	0/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-07-03

Dubai Future Foundation \(Mohammed bin Rashid Global Initiatives\) with Udacity — accessed 2026-07-03

Gulf News – initiative achieves target — accessed 2026-07-03

Dubai Media Office — accessed 2026-07-03

Cite this — Evidoria. One Million Arab Coders Initiative. Persistent ID: 613e266d-bcf6-4ab9-82c6-cd8cc9397625.