

Puerto Rico Digital Equity Capacity Grant Implementation

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Puerto Rico

Quality score: 48/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Puerto Rico's broadband agency is using a $9.8M federal Digital Equity Capacity Grant for digital-literacy training for healthcare, education and government workers, cybersecurity training for IT staff, and Digital Navigators for older adults and people with disabilities.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	2/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	0/1
Evaluation evidence	1/1
Demonstrated reach	0/1
Documented learning	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-07-15

Puerto Rico Broadband Program — accessed 2026-07-15

NTIA press release — accessed 2026-07-15

News Is My Business coverage — accessed 2026-07-15

Benton Institute analysis — accessed 2026-07-15

Official PR Digital Equity Plan \(PDF\) — accessed 2026-07-15

Cite this — Evidoria. Puerto Rico Digital Equity Capacity Grant Implementation. Persistent ID: 7321dab3-c12b-40df-83bb-8ac632a960ec.