

SART — Honduras's National School Dropout Early-Warning System

AI in Education · Good practice · Honduras

Quality score: 40/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Honduras's national SART platform flags students at risk of dropping out — with a focus on displaced, migrant and returnee children — across all 18 departments; a 2024 fact-check found the government's own dropout-reduction claims 'not verified' due to incomplete national data.
