

Stop násilí — Diakonie ■CE's Multi-Modality Therapy Programme for People Who Use Violence

Gender Equality · Good practice · Czechia

Quality score: 89/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Running in Prague since 2009, Diakonie ■CE's Stop násilí offers six therapy tracks — individual, group, couples, probation, court-ordered and teen — for people who use violence. Its 2024 evaluation of 109 clients found 90% reduced violent behaviour.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Transferability / replicability	3/3
Impact on gender equality	1/1
Effectiveness	1/1
Efficiency	0/1
Evaluated outcomes	1/1
Sustainability	1/1
Achievement / evidence	1/1
Gender-mainstreaming embedding	1/1
Curator validation	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-25

Diakonie ■eskobratrské církve evangelické \(Diakonie ■CE\) — accessed 2026-09-25

■eské novinky — 2024 evaluation results — accessed 2026-09-25

Zastav násilí — national association & minimum standards — accessed 2026-09-25

Czech Government Office — Zu■ivec prison programme — accessed 2026-09-25

Cite this — Evidoria. Stop násilí — Diakonie ■CE's Multi-Modality Therapy Programme for People Who Use Violence. Persistent ID: 79c04972-796c-49a5-8cdf-fb3ddb3e3b76.