

The Digital School – Teacher Preparation Programme in Seychelles

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Seychelles

Quality score: 48/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Dubai-based The Digital School, part of the Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum Global Initiatives, trained 395 Seychellois teachers across 11 schools in blended digital-classroom methods by mid-2026, part of a global programme reaching 850,000+ learners in 40+ countries.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	2/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	0/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-07-22

The Digital School \(Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum Global Initiatives\) — accessed 2026-07-22

The National News – Programme expansion in Seychelles — accessed 2026-07-22

TradingView \(Reuters/Zawya wire\) – Programme expansion announcement — accessed 2026-07-22

The Digital School – official site — accessed 2026-07-22

Cite this — Evidoria. The Digital School – Teacher Preparation Programme in Seychelles. Persistent ID: 06ef2a94-7025-4692-85ba-23ebb5aaa082.