

The Femicide Census — the UK's Cross-Referenced National Database of Women Killed by Men

Gender Equality · Good practice · United Kingdom

Quality score: 74/100

Evidence strength: Observational / pre–post

Summary

Since 2015 the Femicide Census has cross-referenced UK police, court and media records to document over 1,000 women killed by men since 2009, filling a data gap official statistics left open and informing parliamentary debate and Domestic Homicide Review practice.
