

Tiflolibros — Argentina's Crowd-Sourced Spanish-Language Digital Library for Blind and Low-Vision Readers

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Argentina

Quality score: 72/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Tiflolibros, run by Argentine non-profit Tiflonexos, is a free, user-built library of accessible Spanish-language books: 10,000+ users in 50 countries and 65,000+ titles by 2021, UNESCO-prized in 2016, but reach is self-reported.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	3/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	0/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	1/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-10-20

Asociación Tiflonexos — accessed 2026-10-20

Zero Project profile — accessed 2026-10-20

Internet Society: UNESCO prize — accessed 2026-10-20

Cite this — Evidoria. Tiflolibros — Argentina's Crowd-Sourced Spanish-Language Digital Library for Blind and Low-Vision Readers. Persistent ID: a676954c-065b-4779-9248-6bb12aee39b1.