

TransportSign — SignAvatar's AI Speech-to-Sign-Language Translator at Belgrade Central Railway Station

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Serbia

Quality score: 76/100

Evidence strength: Strong

Summary

Serbian startup SignAvatar deployed 'TransportSign' at Belgrade's Central Railway Station, using AI to convert real-time public-transport announcements into sign-language avatar video and multilingual text for Deaf and hard-of-hearing passengers.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	4/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	1/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-08-27

SignAvatar / Railways of Serbia — accessed 2026-08-27

OECD-OPSI: SignAvatar — AI Speech to Sign Language Translator — accessed 2026-08-27

Nasdaq: Djordje Dimitrijevic — Revolutionizing Content in Sign Language — accessed 2026-08-27

Cite this — Evidoria. TransportSign — SignAvatar's AI Speech-to-Sign-Language Translator at Belgrade Central Railway Station. Persistent ID: ea79738f-9909-4c32-aba2-9bf488706956.