

Visis by Vinsighte — AI-Powered OCR Reading Technology for Visually Impaired Students in Nigeria

Digital Inclusion · Good practice · Nigeria

Quality score: 56/100

Evidence strength: Moderate

Summary

Nigerian edtech Vinsighte built "Visis", an AI-OCR device-and-app that scans text and reads it aloud in local accents/languages for visually impaired students; deployed 35 units across 8 schools, reaching 15,000+ people, $165,000+ revenue, continental award.

Key dimensions

Dimension	Score
Innovation level	4/5
Sustainability (ongoing)	1/1
Evaluation evidence	0/1
Demonstrated reach	1/1
Documented learning	0/1

Evaluated by C-NAPSE

Data sources

C-NAPSE web research — accessed 2026-09-26

Vinsighte — accessed 2026-09-26

Minority Africa profile — accessed 2026-09-26

UN SDG Partnership Platform listing — accessed 2026-09-26

TechCabal profile — accessed 2026-09-26

Cite this — Evidoria. Visis by Vinsighte — AI-Powered OCR Reading Technology for Visually Impaired Students in Nigeria. Persistent ID: b854b6fd-89f0-4f34-a628-71f61059417a.