

Yale's GPTZero Wrongful-Suspension Lawsuit — An MBA Student Fights a Year-Long Ban Over an AI-Detection Flag

AI in Education · Good practice · United States of America

Quality score: 13/100

Evidence strength: Cautionary / limited

Summary

A Yale MBA student was suspended for a year after GPTZero flagged his no-internet exam as AI-written; his federal lawsuit alleges national-origin discrimination and due-process violations, becoming a cautionary test case for AI-detector-based discipline.
